

WORDS HAVE JOBS!

Meet three kinds of words and see what each one does.

A SENTENCE IS A TEAM OF WORDS

The blue airplane lands.

ADJECTIVE

NOUN

VERB

NOUN

a naming word

TRY THESE

airplane pilot airport

What job does the word do?

VERB

an action word

TRY THESE

lands flies taxis

What job does the word do?

ADJECTIVE

a describing word

TRY THESE

blue fast shiny

What job does the word do?

BUILD A RUNWAY SENTENCE

Choose one word for each job. Then read your sentence aloud!

ADJECTIVE

tiny blue speedy

NOUN

jet pilot airplane

VERB

flies lands zooms

The

adjective

noun

verb

A noun names it. A verb makes it move. An adjective tells us more.